Chairman Gambale read the legal notice and opened the public hearing and assigned Justin Planash as a voting member.

Discussion was held regarding the location of the structure and proposed structures on the lot. The proposal is for 10’x15’ addition and 28’ x 24’ garage. Currently, the left side set back is 50-feet; the proposal is to reduce it to 30-feet. The existing home is non-conforming due to insufficient frontage and side setback.

Chairman Gambale reviewed his observations and photos of the house. The garage will be one story, no loft proposed. Mr. Clocker discussed the finish siding matching the house, from structure having two garage doors, location of windows on the side facing the neighbor and all new lighting face downward.
MOTION:

Chairman Gambale moved that the Board find that the structure is legally preexisting non-conforming structure, with non-conforming front and side setbacks. Mr. Vlahos seconded the motion passed unanimously.

MOTION:

Chairman Gambale moved that the Board find that the relief sought by the Petitioner will not be more substantially detrimental to the neighborhood than the existing nonconforming structure. Mr. Vlahos seconded, the motion passed unanimously.

Chairman Gambale reviewed the criteria in section XI.J - II a & b

MOTION:

Mr. Clocker moved that the Board find the applicant has met criteria in both a & b. Mr. Vlahos seconded the motion passed unanimously.
