

Bruce F. Howell

Oct 4, 2021

Not too long ago, Walding Field Rd. was a seemingly special place. In the last 10 years, traffic flow has steadily increased - due to local "progress," I guess. Now comes another corporate "neighbor," and I'm sure the cookie they seek today is small. Rest assured, the cookie sought today will be a cookie store tomorrow, and what remains of Walding Field's character will be lost, I fear!

